To W. L. G.

Worcester. Feb. 23. 1853.

Dear Sir

26 I hear from Mr. Gay that you would like some suggestions as to the subject of your Lecture here.

Mr. Greeley gave our first Lecture — a rather general & historical view of Slavery. Mr. Pierpont last gave a very able exposition of the Higher Law & duty of disobeying Unjust Laws & Mr. Douglass talked us: & Jan Come next.

I should suggest either. (1) An elementary statement of the simple features of American Slavery — as it. I think we need always to be reminded.

or, (2.) Some historical retrospect of the A. S. movement — which I think would have a peculiar interest from you.

or, (3.) A statement of your peculiar views as to A. S. policy, as well as principle — which will not, perhaps, be formally presented by any other speaker.

These suggestions are all that I can make.

I hope that you will come by the 4. P.M. train on Friday, at latest, as the 8 P.M. train is uncertain.

I shall meet you at ~~the~~ the Station. But should you miss me, please call at the American House (close by) & I will meet you there.

Yours very respectfully

T. W. Higginson.
